

Here is what attendees had to say after attending 'Street Officer's Response to Civil Disputes'

How would you rate this course overall?

1                      2                      3                      4                      5
Needs                                                                                                          Very
Improvement                                                                                                          Good

Overall Comments: Every cop should be required by their agency. Skills training for our new people come into law enforcement.

How would you rate this course overall?

1                      2                      3                      4                      5
Needs                                                                                                          Very
Improvement                                                                                                          Good

Overall Comments:

very good course, I will be recommending this to my partners

How would you rate this course overall?

1                      2                      3                      4                      5
Needs                                                                                                          Very
Improvement                                                                                                          Good

Overall Comments: should be mandatory for any patrol officer, or at least supervisors

Limit your exposure to civil liability. For further information about course topics, class dates, locations and registration, please visit letsllc.com or mnsheriffs.org for further details.

"...1245 Main St, landlord/tenant dispute. RP stating the tenant owes back rent and abandoned the apartment two weeks ago and is now back trying to retrieve personal property. Tenant is aware of the call..."

"...513 35th Ave, roommate dispute. Complainant stating roommate has guests over that are loud and disturbing and wants them removed. Sounds like all parties are DK..."

"MDT repo information...RP now requesting to be seen, stating the subject vehicle owner is being verbally aggressive and lying under the subject vehicle. RP is asking for assistance removing the vehicle owner..."

"...Dave's Auto Repair, 22356 Jackson St. RP stating he brought his car into the shop for repairs and says Dave's Auto is now refusing to release vehicle. RP would like to be seen..."

Did you know tens of thousands of dollars have been paid out by cities and counties because peace officers mishandled similar types of calls for service?

Register for a class today at mnsheriffs.org